There are many ways to be Jewish.

And there are many ways to be generous.
Dear Friend,

Each and every day, year after year, the work we do at the Jewish Alliance indeed changes the world.

We’re connecting young families to each other and to the community, inspiring them to explore opportunities to participate in Jewish life. We’re creating a community-wide safety net for the economically vulnerable, seniors, and many others who need support. Together we are transforming Jewish values into tangible deeds.

The pictures, names, and information included in this report tell the story of the world we are creating. A world of philanthropy, activism, and commitment demonstrated through every person listed here. Each donor, volunteer, and leader supports an amazing effort to build a brighter future for the greater good.

The Alliance is about shaping our future and creating a Jewish community of joy, purpose, and engagement. We infuse your generosity with meaning, address today’s pressing needs, and prepare for tomorrow’s challenges, both locally and globally. It is through your generosity that we continue to build a community that provides a strong Jewish identity for our children, grandchildren, and beyond.

I look forward to the days ahead—steeped in the promise of our community’s compassion and rich diversity.

Jeffrey K. Savit
President & CEO

“The world stands on three things: on Torah, on worship, and on acts of loving kindness.”

-Pirkei Avot

Your generosity helped children enhance their connection to Judaism, explore their Jewish identities, and form deep and lasting bonds with friends at summer camp.
Living on the Edge

The Jewish Alliance of Greater Rhode Island, with the support of Alan Hassenfeld, commissioned Brandeis University’s Steinhardt Social Research Institute to put together a report entitled Living on the Edge: Economic Insecurity among Jewish Households in Greater Rhode Island. The research showed that half of the Jewish households in communities served by the Alliance face economic difficulties.

The following donors generously contributed to a fund that will allow the Alliance and our community partners to respond to the growing economic crisis facing Jewish households in greater Rhode Island.

Women’s Alliance

Women’s philanthropy provides an opportunity for all women to strengthen and shape their connection to the Jewish community and each other. Together, we further the Jewish Alliance’s mission through educational, volunteer, and philanthropic opportunities—developing and supporting programs that aid the community and well-being of others.

Special thanks to these women for their support during the 2014 Annual Campaign.

Thank You

Thanks to you, the Jewish Alliance is investing nearly $2.6 million in our community for FY2014 (July 2014 - June 2015). Here’s how we are making a difference:

Annual Campaign - Where Your Money Goes

- Jewish Life & Learning
  Connects people to Judaism and offers our whole community scores of opportunities to learn and celebrate together throughout the year.

- Caring & Social Responsibility
  Helps the most vulnerable members of our community, putting food on the table, keeping a roof overhead, and addressing other critical needs of children, seniors, and the many individuals and families who are struggling.

- Jewish Peoplehood
  Helps our community survive and thrive worldwide – making life-saving food deliveries to impoverished seniors, providing educational and social programs for at-risk children, helping Jewish people everywhere to discover their heritage.
